Spain. THE PAPAL NUNCIO'S CIRCULAR.

LONDON, September 16.—The Madrid correspondent of the Times summarizes the circular of the Papal Nuncio to the bishops as follows: The Nuncio claims the fulfilment of the Concordat, which forbids the exercise of any non-Catholic creed; requires the transfer of the superintendence over education to the clergy, and pledges the ccoperation of the secular power in suppressing heretical teachings and literature. He says: "One of the causes of civil war is the way in which religious unity has been misunderstood by previous Governments. For these reasons, and in view of their consequences, the Holy See believes itself strictly obliged to present these observations to the Govern-The Times's correspondent adds: "No
